- Highest order volume occurred during 12 pm (Lunch).

Insights & Recommendations

- Introduce mid-week specials (e.g., “Two-for-Wednesday”) to increase footfall on low-sales days.
- To address low breakfast sales, explore menu innovation, targeted marketing, or partnerships with delivery platforms during morning hours.
- Leverage category trends by launching seasonal offerings, such as beverages in summer or desserts in winter, aligned with demand cycles.
- Promote top-selling items through combo deals and loyalty programs to boost weekday traffic.
- Align staffing schedules and inventory replenishment with peak demand periods, especially during lunch hours.
